

Internal review report—Supply Chain Due Diligence Process (2023)

We have upheld the conditions of the policy as a qualified RJC member requested, and we assess any red flag concerns in the areas specified annually to ensure all measures are implemented as set, and will share such information promptly to relevant teams and management.

1. RNP is a wholesale company based in Hong Kong. This policy confirms RNP's commitment to respect human rights, avoid contributing to the finance of conflict and comply with all relevant UN sanctions, resolutions and laws.
2. RNP is a certified member of the Responsible Jewelry Council (RJC). As such, we commit to proving, through independent third-party verification, that we:
 - a. respect human rights according to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and International Labor Organization Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work;
 - b. do not engage in or tolerate bribery, corruption, money laundering or finance of terrorism;
 - c. support transparency of government payments and rights-compatible security forces in the extractives industry;
 - d. do not provide direct or indirect support to illegal armed groups;
 - e. enable stakeholders to voice concerns about the jewelry supply chain; and
 - f. are implementing the OECD five-step framework as a management process for risk-based due diligence for responsible supply chains of minerals from conflict-affected and high-risk areas.
3. We also commit to using our influence to prevent abuses by others, specifically partners in our vertically integrated supply chain. We ask for RJC membership commitment and adherence to RJC CoP from our vertically integrated suppliers. The public may use the feedback/complaint messaging page on our website "Contact Us" page to reach us.
4. Regarding serious abuses associated with the extraction, transport or trade of minerals: We will neither tolerate nor profit from, contribute to, assist or facilitate the commission of:
 - a. torture, cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment;
 - b. forced or compulsory Labor;

- c. the worst forms of child Labor;
 - d. human rights violations and abuses; or e. war crimes, violations of international humanitarian law, crimes against humanity or genocide.
5. We will immediately stop engaging with upstream suppliers if we find a reasonable risk that they are committing abuses described in paragraph 4 or are sourcing from, or linked to, any party committing these abuses.
6. Regarding direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups: We only buy or sell diamonds that are fully compliant with the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme and, as such, will not tolerate direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups, including, but not limited to, procuring diamonds from, making payments to, or otherwise helping or equipping non-state armed groups or their affiliates who illegally:
- a. control mine sites, transportation routes, points where diamonds are traded and upstream actors in the supply chain; or
 - b. tax or extort money or diamonds at mine sites, along transportation routes or at points where diamonds are traded, or from intermediaries, export companies or international traders.
7. We will immediately stop engaging with upstream suppliers if we find a reasonable risk that they are sourcing from, or are linked to, any party providing direct or indirect support to non- state armed groups as described in paragraph 6.
8. Regarding public or private security forces: We affirm that the role of public or private security forces is to provide security to workers, facilities, equipment and property in accordance with the rule of law, including law that guarantees human rights. We will not provide direct or indirect support to public or private security forces that commit abuses described in paragraph 4 or that act illegally as described in paragraph 6.
9. Regarding bribery and fraudulent misrepresentation of the origin of minerals: We will not offer, promise, give or demand bribes, and will resist the solicitation of bribes, to conceal or disguise the origin of minerals, or to misrepresent taxes, fees and royalties paid to governments for the purposes of extraction, trade, handling, transport and export of minerals.
10. Regarding money laundering: We will support and contribute to efforts to eliminate money laundering where we identify a reasonable risk resulting from, or connected to, the extraction, trade, handling, transport or export of minerals.

This Statement identifies the steps we have taken to identify and mitigate potential risks in our business and supply chains.

We completed the assessment by August 2023 and found no red flags alerted during the reporting period, thus no additional measures on the risk assessment are necessary.
