

Dear All,

Subject: Annual report of 2022 of our compliance with Code of Practice:

RNP Jewelry Design Ltd. (RNP) is committed to operating its business in accordance with the RJC Code of Practices, not only because we are a member of RJC, we believe integrating ethical human rights, social and environment consideration into daily operations, business planning and decision- making policies would be vital to our development and sustainability.

RNP has complied fully with all national laws and regulations at where we operated. We have implemented strong internal control of working with reliable business partners to prevent dealing with unidentified suppliers and unreliable customers for money laundering and counter-terrorism financing, we emphasized to our staffs and business partners always that we must not engage in any form of corruption or bribery in any business practice or transactions carried out by them or on their behalf.

We advocated to respect all human rights, no forms of torture, cruel, inhumane and degrading treatment, no form of forced labor or child labor, no human rights violations nor sexual or disability harassment. Our workplace is always maintained as a healthy and safe environment, we encourage all kind of environmental protection that could preserve and protect our world and sustainability is what all we should support.

RNP is committed to not buying or selling Conflict Diamonds and raw metals, all suppliers of diamonds are required to ensure the same thorough compliance with the Kimberly Process Certification Scheme (KPCS), the World Diamond Council, Statement of Warranties (SOW) and applicable national legislation and give a declaration to this effect on their invoices. All Suppliers of raw metals must ensure conflict free sourcing in accordance with the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High Risk Areas through the London Bullion Market Association (LBMA) or Responsible Mineral Initiative (RMI) or Dubai Multi Commodities Centre (DMCC) or RJC (Chain of Custody) with a declaration to this effect on the invoices.

Our company has carried out all ethical business practice and policy in compliance of RJC's Code of Practice, no alarming risks were identified along our due diligence and risk assessment during the reporting period.

Prepared by:

Compliance Officer

Date: July 2022

Dear All,

Subject: Annual report of 2023 of our compliance with Code of Practice:

As always, RNP Jewelry Design Ltd. (RNP) is committed to fulfill all requirement in accordance with the RJC Code of Practices, we respect operating with ethical human rights, social and environment consideration into daily operations, business planning and decision-making policies would be vital to our development and sustainability.

RNP has complied fully with all national laws and regulations at where we operated. We have implemented strong internal control of working with reliable business partners to prevent dealing with unidentified suppliers and unreliable customers for money laundering and counter-terrorism financing, we emphasized to our staffs and business partners always that we must not engage in any form of corruption or bribery in any business practice or transactions carried out by them or on their behalf.

We advocated to respect all human rights, no forms of torture, cruel, inhumane and degrading treatment, no form of forced labor or child labor, no human rights violations nor sexual or disability harassment. Our workplace is always maintained as a healthy and safe environment, we encourage all kind of environmental protection that could preserve and protect our world and sustainability is what all we should support.

RNP is committed to not buying or selling Conflict Diamonds and raw metals, all suppliers of diamonds are required to ensure the same thorough compliance with the Kimberly Process Certification Scheme (KPCS), the World Diamond Council, Statement of Warranties (SOW) and applicable national legislation and give a declaration to this effect on their invoices. All Suppliers of raw metals must ensure conflict free sourcing in accordance with the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High Risk Areas through the London Bullion Market Association (LBMA) or Responsible Mineral Initiative (RMI) or Dubai Multi Commodities Centre (DMCC) or RJC (Chain of Custody) with a declaration to this effect on the invoices.

During our annual review, our company has carried out all ethical business practice and policy in compliance of RJC's Code of Practice, no alarming risks were identified along our due diligence and risk assessment during the reporting period.

Prepared by:

Compliance Officer

Date: August 2023